

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY
AFTER PENTECOST
August 29, 2010

Alleluia! Jesus Christ has destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel. Alleluia!

We Are IN HIS HANDS

GREETINGS and WELCOME to Brooklyn Lutheran Church.

VISITORS please sign the guest book.

Come and worship with us again soon!

Available from an usher:

- Bibles to follow along with the Scripture Readings.
- Large print hymnal is available.
- Quiet bags for small children.

Please return these to our ushers following the Service.

We welcome children to our Worship Service just as Jesus stated “Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.” (Luke 18:16) We have an area located in our fellowship hall for you to calm your child. There is a basket of infant/toddler quiet toys /books that may be helpful for them during the Service. Please return them to the basket at the close of the Service. Also a changing station is located in the women’s restroom. The ushers will direct you.

Prayer Before Worship: Heavenly Father, I have come to worship You. Draw near to me in Your gracious Word, and assure me of Your loving kindness. Curb my wandering thoughts, that with undivided attention I may hear Your voice and sing Your praise. Amen

HYMNS: 339 285 vs. 1,2,11,12 207

ORDER OF SERVICE:

Morning Praise in New Service Settings, Page 22
Instructions on the back of the bulletin.

Prayer of the Day—Spoken by all together.

Almighty and everlasting God, give us an increase of faith,

AUTUMN IS COMING!!

Worship Time returns to 10am, September 12 - the Sunday after Labor Day week-end. Sunday School starts the same day (8:30am) and Adult Bible Class (8:55am). At least two adult courses will be offered on Sunday mornings! The Friday 9:30am class is finishing Revelation in the weeks ahead and is looking to start a new course September 10th. A young adult Bible study group is being formed to meet on Sunday or some other day of the week, perhaps off our campus. Look for more information on all of these in the newsletter distributed today!

Brooklyn Bridge School is starting Tuesday, Sept. 7. We have about 30 children registered (capacity 48 in four classes.) One class is full. Do you know someone with a preschool aged child? Pick up a brochure from the office and encourage them to call or stop in. Pray that we might have full classes of 12 youngsters each learning about their loving Savior!

The Wishing Tree. It’s located on the wall next to the coat rack. Each of the leaves has an item or two that we would like for our classroom or crafts. If you would like to help, take a leaf with you. Maybe you even have some of these items already in your home. The leaves and items will change as the year progresses. Everything can be left on or near my desk in the office. If you have other things that you think might be good for a craft project, please don’t hesitate to ask. I’m always looking for new ideas.

You may have noticed that the library is now upstairs. We are currently in the middle of cataloging the books and grouping them into subjects. Once this is done, the catalogue will be kept in a three ring binder. To check books out, we will continue to use the cards located inside the back cover of the books. Not all books have these. If there is anyone that would like to help get our library in order and keep it running smoothly, please contact Katie Koch. If you have books that you would like to donate, they may be left on Katie’s desk.

An Idea Memo form for everyone to offer ideas and suggestions to our Elder Council has been developed. Forms will be located by the entry mailboxes under the title Idea Memo Forms. Please offer your suggestions and ideas to our council to consider in furthering the mission of Brooklyn Lutheran. The completed forms can be deposited in the mailbox titled: Idea Memos.

Check out the 2010-11 West School year display in the Commons prepared by a teacher and put up here by Brenda Glodowski.

hope, and love; and, that we may obtain what You promise, make us love what You command; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSONS:

First Lesson: Isaiah 66:18-24 (Page 1166)

In the closing words of his prophecy, Isaiah foretold that people from every nation would be saved. However, those who rebelled against God in unbelief would receive unending punishment.

Psalms of the Day: Psalm 72 (Page 93 or back of bulletin)

This messianic Psalm portrays Christ as the universal King to Whom “all kings will bow down.”

Gospel: Luke 13:22-30 (Page 1621)

The door to heaven, open to people from all nations, is Jesus Christ, the One Who makes us right with God. Those who try to enter through any other door will be sent away.

SERMON: Hebrews 12:18-24 (Page 1878)

Listen To The God Who Shakes Things Up!

- ✘ God’s Law Rightly “Shakes Us Up.”
- ✘ God’s Gospel Gives Us A Kingdom That Cannot Be Shaken.

PSALM 72

Refrain: Let the people praise You, O God.
Let all the people praise You.

Endow the King with Your justice, 'O God,*
the royal Son with Your 'righteousness.

He will defend the afflicted among the 'people* and save the children of the 'needy.

He will endure as long 'as the sun,*
as long as the moon, through all gener'ations.

He will be like rain falling on a 'mown field,*
like showers water'ing the earth.

Refrain: Let the people praise You, O God.
Let all the people praise You.

All kings will bow 'down to Him,*
and all nations will 'serve Him.

All nations will be 'blessed through Him,*
and they will 'call Him blessed.

Praise be to the Lord God, Who alone does mar'velous deeds.*
May the whole earth be filled with His 'glory.

Glory be to the Father and 'to the Son*
and to the Holy 'Spirit,
as it was in the be'ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. 'Amen.

Refrain: Let the people praise You, O God.
Let all the people praise You.
